

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Graeme Jones <jonesiom@gmail.com>

Date: Mon, 12 Dec 2022 at 23:23

Subject: Re: unconstitutional sacking of one of my constituent MHKs

To: Halliday, Samuel <Samuel.Halliday@gov.im>

I should highlight that I thought the Chief Minister assurance that things would change would have included immediately rejecting any toxic culture training from Cabinet Office OHR or from HM AG chambers either to deflect or to absorb evidence of wrongdoing with a passive-aggressive public sector no-no "noted" or disingenuously reassure that lessons have been learned yet no changes happen:

<https://www.cnn.com/2022/08/19/these-phrases-make-you-sound-passive-aggressive-in-the-workplace.html>

10 common phrases that make you sound passive-aggressive in the workplace
Published Fri, Aug 19 2022

....

Whether intentional or unintentional, being passive-aggressive in the workplace could make others uncomfortable, create tension and even jeopardize your job.

....

According to the findings, here are the top 10 most passive-aggressive phrases in the workplace:

1. Please advise

2. Noted

....